Charles-Town, May 30, 1766.

Mr. CROUCH,

By inſerting the following Lines in your Gazette, as ſoon as poſſible, you will ſhew your own Reſpect for the Perſonage who is the Subject of them, and at the ſame Time oblige

Your's, &c. AMERICANUS.

TO ſerve a Sovereign with unſhaken Zeal,
The wild Diſorders of a Realm to heal;
To raiſe the Honour of Britannia's Iſle,
And bid the low'ring, untam'd Savage ſmile;
With potent Fleets to rule the ſpacious Main,
And curb the Haughtineſs of France and Spain;
To make the Indian in his Wilds ſubmit
To GEORGE's Sway; was thine, Illuſtrious PITT.
Theſe Weſtern Regions groan'd beneath the Weight
Of Taxes levied by the Britiſh State;
Commerce, the Strength of Nations, ſeem'd to ſleep,
And wounded Liberty began to weep:
Then PITT aroſe and ſav'd our ſinking Land,
And reſcued Millions from Oppreſſion's Hand;
The mighty Orator eſpous'd our Cauſe,
And blam'd the Violation of our Laws;
While ſoft Perſuaſion on his Accents hung,
The vaulted Dome with loud Applauſes rung;
Let Greece no more her Rhetorician boaſt
Whoſe rapid Speeches fir'd th' Athenian Hoſt:
Now let proud Rome acknowledge this is true,
That PITT has Charms which Tully never knew.
Let not pale Envy tarniſh his fair Fame,
Or ſay, Self-Intereſt was his ſordid Aim:
Immortal Honour always is deſir'd
By generous Minds with Patriotiſm fir'd;
Did not the Roman own he courted Praiſe?
And who contemns it in theſe modern Days?
A glorious Emulation ſcorns the Slave,
And ſtill diſtinguiſhes the Wiſe and Brave.
Then ſound the Trump of Fame! but ſtop, my Muſe,
'Tis not thy Province ſuch bold Themes to chooſe;
Fly hence, Preſumptive, to thy native Groves,
And mount no higher than a Shepherd's Loves;
A Patriot's Worth tranſcends thy feeble Praiſe,
As far as Homer's Lines exceed thy humble Lays.

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE.

DOMINICA, April 9.

ON Sunday laſt the Honourable his Majeſty's Commiſſioners appointed for the Sale and Diſpoſal of Lands, embarked from this Iſland for St. Vincent and Tobago.

An Ordinance, for continuing and amending an Ordinance, intitled, An Ordinance for eſtabliſhing Courts of Common Pleas, and Courts of Errors, in the Iſlands of Grenada, St. Vincent, Dominica, and for the better regulating the Proceedings thereof, paſſed the General Council unanimouſly, and aſſented to by his Excellency General Melvill, on Saturday the 8th Day of February laſt, and was publiſhed in this Iſland on Wedneſday the 2d Inſtant.

An Ordinance containing Twenty-two Clauſes, for regulating the Elections of the General Aſſembly of Grenada, Grenadines, Dominica, St. Vincent, and Tobago, and for limiting the Powers of that Part of the ſaid General Aſſembly preſently to be called for Grenada and the Grenadines, paſſed the General Council unanimouſly, and was aſſented to by his Excellency General Melvill, on Monday the 10th Day of February laſt. The Aſſembly at preſent called is to ſit but twelve Months from the Date of the Ordinance, and has no power over any of the other Iſlands but Grenada and the Grenadines.

St. Chriſtopher's, April 23. A Letter from a Gentleman in London, to a Merchant in Antigua, dated Feb. 18, ſays, "We have a Report, which ſeems to gain great Credit, that the Secretaries of State have received an Expreſs of the Spaniards having ſent 30,000 Men to the Boundaries of Portugal, and in Conjunction with France, are fitting out a large Force (ſuppoſed againſt the Brazils) on which, it is ſaid, there are Expreſſes gone from hence to the Count la Lippe. If all this is true, I leave you to judge the conſequence."

Antigua, April 30. Laſt Week arrived here his Majeſty's Sloop Tamer, commanded by Capt. Cumming (one of the Ships of Commodore Byron's Squadron) who ſailed from England in July 1764. It is ſaid ſhe has been round the South-Seas, and paſſed the Straits of Magellan. In her Paſſage Home from St. Helena ſhe loſt her Rudder, and put in here to refit.

SAVANNAH, (in GEORGIA,) MAY 21.

His Majeſty's Poſtmaſter-General has eſtabliſhed two additional Packet-Boats, of 170 Tons burthen, to be navigated with 20 Men each, for the Conveyance of Mails, Expreſſes, and Paſſengers, to Barbados, Grenada, Antigua, St. Chriſtophers, Jamaica, Penſacola, Charles-Town, and back to Falmouth; alſo three others of the ſame Tonnage, and the like Number of Men, inſtead of thoſe before employed. A Mail was to be diſpatched from the General Poſt-Office, London, on Thurſday the 13th of March laſt, and for the future the Mails are to be diſpatched from thence the ſecond Thurſday in every Month.

The Freſhes at preſent in the Rivers Savannah and Ogeechee are ſo great that ſeveral Negro-houſes, &c. are waſhed away, and great Quantities of Land overflown.

William Grover, Eſq; formerly Chief-Juſtice of this Province, we are told, is appointed Chief-Juſtice of Eaſt-Florida, in the Room of the Hon. James Moultrie, Eſq; deceaſed.

On Friday last Capt. Joseph Harrington, in the Brig Medway, arrived here in Eight Weeks from Liverpool, by whom we have a Confirmation of the REPEAL of the STAMP-ACT, upon which happy Event we moſt heartily congratulate all his Majeſty's good and loyal American Subjects, but more particularly our Readers,..... And if we had not been diſappointed in the Premiſe of having the firſt Uſe of the Papers which Capt. Harrington brought, we ſhould have publiſhed an Extraordinary Gazette, on Saturday Afternoon; ſo that it was not for Want of good Will that we did not give the Publick the firſt Confirmation of the Repeal of the aforeſaid Act; as we did when the firſt Account came to Hand of its being repealed by the Houſe of Commons, &c. &c.

From the LONDON GAZETTE, and other PAPERS.

WESTMINSTER, March 18.

THIS Day His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molineux, Knt. Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal Aſſent to,

An Act to repeal an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting and applying certain Stamp Duties and other Duties in the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, towards further defraying the Expences of Defending, Protecting, and Securing the ſame, and for amending ſuch Parts of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating to the Trade and Revenues of the ſaid Colonies and Plantations, as direct the Manner of Determining and Recovering the Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned.

An Act for the better Securing the Dependency of His Majeſty's Dominions in America upon the Crown and Parliament of Great-Britain. [Thus far the London Gazette.]

LONDON, March 15.

The Report that the Duke of York is to be appointed Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, is again revived.

A certain Northern Potentate, it is whiſpered, was lately diſcovered in Diſguiſe at Paris. The Moment he found himſelf known, he mounted a Horſe which was in conſtant Readineſs, and attended by a couple of Friends, took leave of that Metropolis.

We hear that a Bill is in Agitation to grant no Perſon a Divorce in Caſes of Adultery, who ſhall ſue for pecuniary Damages.

A Talk prevails that the Pay of the Navy will be conſiderably increaſed.

Orders are ſent down to Portſmouth, for ſome Frigates of War to be fitted out there, in order to ſail with the Newfoundland Fleet.

On Thurſday ſailed from Portſmouth the Anſon Cutter, Lieutenant Rich, ſent Expreſs to Gibraltar.

On Saturday ſailed through Cowes Road, without ſtopping, the Boreas Frigate, Capt. Hughes, and two Tranſports with Troops for the Coaſt of Africa.

MARCH 18. Vaſt Numbers of his Majeſty's right truſty and loyal Subjects, of generous Hearts and ſound Bottoms, true Friends to their Country, and the Conſtitution under his illuſtrious Houſe, attended his Majeſty in St. James's Park, and expreſſed their unfeigned Joy on an Occaſion, which will, no doubt, reſtore Union, Harmony, and Proſperity, to every Part of his Majeſty's extended and glorious Dominions, and thereby ſecure to lateſt Poſterity the firmeſt Dependance on each other, as is their true and mutual Intereſt.

This Morning, about Eleven o'Clock, a great Number of North-American Merchants went in their Coaches from the King's Arms Tavern in Cornhill to the Houſe of Peers, to pay their Duty to his Majeſty, and to expreſs their Satisfaction at his ſigning the Bill for repealing the American Stamp-Act. There were upwards of Fifty Coaches in the Proceſſion.

The Bells of the ſeveral Pariſh-Churches of this Metropolis were ſet a Ringing, and there was an univerſal Joy appeared in the Countenances of the People in general.

Among the Crowd, there was a numerous Body of Sailors, Mechanicks, &c. who gave his Majeſty three Cheers on returning from the Parliament-Houſe.

Yeſterday Morning his Excellency the Dutch Ambaſſador had an Audience of his Majeſty's Secretaries of State, on the Subject of ſome Diſpatches from the States-General.

We hear a new Set of Mediterranean Paſſes will ſoon be made out.

According to private Advices from Rome, Application was ſaid to be making to the Republick of Genoa, to obtain a Retreat for the eldeſt Son of the deceaſed Chevalier de St. George, in the Iſland of Corſica.

Two Ships, with American Oak-Timber, arrived a few Days ago at Milford-Haven, from Piſcataqua, in New-England, where the Keels of two Third-Rate Men of War are laid upon the Stocks to be conſtructed on the Model of the Prince of Wales, launched there in June laſt.

They write from Waterford, that Thirty-four Veſſels from different Ports of England, are now victualling there, for the Cod-Fiſhery this Seaſon at Newfoundland.

Their Royal Highneſſes the Prince of Wales and the Biſhop of Oſnabrug were, on Saturday Morning, judged, by their Phyſicians, to be out of Danger from the Eruptions which have ſucceeded their Inoculation.

March 22. We are informed that the Royal Nuptials between the King of Denmark and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Carolina Matilda of England, will take place the Beginning of next Auguſt.

The Poſtſcript of a Letter from Stockholm, dated March 4th, ſays, "The public Tranquility begins to be threatened again, inſomuch that the ſecret Committee has repreſented the Neceſſity of taking timely Precautions; and the States, finding there is ſome Foundation for their Advice, have reported it to the King. We ſhall be able, it is likely, to ſay more by next Poſt."

There is a general and ſtrong Report of a War at Bruſſels: The raiſing of a numerous Militia in France, the Increaſe of our Forces in theſe Provinces, giving large Bounty-Money to Volunteers who inliſt, and the Colonels and Quarter-maſters of ſeveral Regiments being ordered to repair to Vienna, whither they are already gone, gives Ground for theſe Reports: Time will beſt clear up the Matter.

It is reported that his Excellency the Earl of Rochford, by the laſt Diſpatches to Madrid, has received Orders to repreſent, in the moſt poſitive Terms, to the Catholick Miniſtry, that any farther Procraſtination in the Payment of the Manilla Ranſom, will be reſented in a Manner ſuitable to the Dignity of Great-Britain.

According to private Letters from Paris, the Courts of Verſailles and Madrid have actually given a Negative to the Sollicitations of the Chevalier Charles Edward, for interceeding with the Roman Pontiff on Behalf of his Brother.

Yeſterday there was a Cabinet Council at St. James's, on Affairs relating to the Colonies.

The Repeal of the late Stamp-Act, for America, takes place the firſt Day of May next.

Wedneſday Night about one hundred Merchants of this City, beſides ſeveral Members of Parliament, and ſome of the Aldermen, met on Occaſion of the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, at the Half-Moon Tavern, Cheapſide, when, after Supper, the following Toaſts were drank; their Majeſties; the Royal Family; the two Houſes of Parliament; the preſent Adminiſtration; Unanimity between Great-Britain and the Colonies; Trade and Navigation; the City of London; Duke of Ancaſter; Mr. PITT; Sir George Saville; Sir William Meredith; Mr. Alderman Trecothick, and the reſt of the Gentlemen of the North-American Committee.

Orders are ſaid to have been tranſmitted to North-America, for re-ſhipping the Stamp-Papers to England.

Recent Advices from Vienna, mention, that a Body of Imperial Troops have been ordered to form on the Frontiers of Hungary, in Conſequence of ſome important Advices from Conſtantinople.

From the Hague we learn, that now the Prince Stadtholder has arrived of Age, the Treaty of Marriage ſo much talked of will be opened between him and a certain Iſland Princeſs of extraordinary Beauty and Merit, a pretty near Relation.

The Report which was circulated at Paris, relative to an expected Viſit from the Chevalier de St. George, is ſtopped by Authority; and it is ſaid, that two Scotch Prieſts have been ſent to the Baſtile, for ſome very high Encomiums which they have laviſhed on that young Fellow, contrary to the Opinion of Government.

It is ſaid, that in Caſe a Great Commoner ſhould join the preſent patriotic Adminiſtration, ſeveral Regulations for the Intereſt and Welfare of this Kingdom will be ſhortly adopted; and particularly, it is ſaid, that a Bill for triennial Parliaments will be again introduced; alſo, that the late Fiſh, and ſome other unpopular Acts, will be repealed.

The Earldom of Leiceſter, we hear, is ſhortly to be revived, and to give Title to a celebrated Commoner.

Yeſterday it was reported, that Mr. Wilkes, who has been ſo long expected at the King's-Bench, ſurrendered himſelf there Yeſterday; and that, previous to his Surrender, five Hampers of Cyder, each containing 45 Bottles, were ſent to the ſaid Priſon for his Uſe, from a Perſon unknown; and likewiſe five Hampers of Perry, containing each 45 Bottles, by the ſame Hand, with an Annotation, that both the Cyder and Perry were made before the additional Duty was laid thereon, and ſent Carriage free.

The outward bound Ships of War at Portſmouth are ordered to take on board their Complement of Marines.

We hear an Engliſh Garriſon will this Summer be eſtabliſhed at Louiſbourg; and that the Fortifications thereof will be repaired to a reſpectable Condition.

A Sloop of War, and ſeveral Government Cutters, are now fitting out at Chatham and Portſmouth, to ſuperintend the Herring Fiſhery this Seaſon at Shetland, and prevent the Dutch from their uſual Practice of Smuggling on the Coaſt.

We hear that the Exciſe on Beer will be taken off, and in Lieu thereof, to be laid on Malt, which will ſave great Expences, and greatly diminiſh the Number of Exciſemen.

We are glad to hear of the great Spirit of Emulation which now ſubſiſts between the Majority and Minority, who are vying with each other for Popularity; in Conſequence of which a Motion has been made by the Minority, for taking off the late additional Duty on Porter.

It is talked that an additional Duty of one Shilling Sterling per Gallon will be laid on the Importation of all Kind of foreign Brandies.

March 25. Some Letters from Stockholm, by Friday's Holland Mail adviſe, that a quadruple Alliance is now ſecretly negociating in the North, which will ſoon ſhew itſelf, to the Surprize of Europe.

Private Letters from the Hague mention, that a Nobleman of Diſtinction, ſome ſay the Count Bentick, Uncle to the Duke of Portland, is ſoon to be charged with an important Buſineſs to the Court of London, on the Part of his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

After the late terrible Storm at Gibraltar, if we may credit Letters from thence, the Spaniards, to add to the Diſtreſs of the Place, refuſed to let Proviſions and Neceſſaries be brought to its Relief, and ſold to the Sufferers; this Embargo is ſaid, however, to have been taken off, in Conſequence of ſome Remonſtrances made by our Ambaſſador at Madrid.----How different, for the Honour of England, was our Behaviour on Advice of the Earthquake at Liſbon; private Perſons were not only eager to ſend all the Aſſiſtance in their Power, but our Legiſlature immediately ordered a Supply of ſuch Neceſſaries as the Sufferers were thought to ſtand moſt in Need of.-----What a Contraſt! And yet we are in Peace and Harmony.

It is currently reportted, that the Equipment of a conſiderable Force for the Eaſt-Indies, entirely depend upon the Reſolution which Spain ſhall take in Regard to the Manilla Ranſom.

It is reported, that the Fortune of a great Perſonage, at her Marriage, will be 140,000 l. in Money.

LIVERPOOL, March 28. Friday laſt, on receiving the News of the Stamp-Act being repealed, St. Nicholas'-Church Bells rung all Day; and in the Evening the worſhipful John Croſbie, Eſq; Mayor, with a great Number of other Merchants Houſes were illuminated in a grand Manner.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, March 8. We hear that it has been reſolved in an auguſt Aſſembly, that it will be advantageous to the Trade of this Kingdom, if Muſcovado Sugars, of the Growth of the Britiſh Plantations, be permitted to be imported into this Kingdom from Great-Britain, Duty free.

On Thurſday the Bodies of the four Murderers and Pirates, M'Kinlie, St. Quinten, Gidley and Zeckerman, were brought in the Black Cart from Newgate, and hung in Chains; two of them near Macarrell's Wharf on the South Wall, and the other two about the Middle of the Piles below the Pidgeon-Houſe.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſquire, Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over the ſaid Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is his Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, that the Nations of Indians who live under his Majeſty's Protection, and are connected with his Majeſty's Subjects, ſhould not be moleſted or diſturbed in the Poſſeſſion of ſuch Parts of his Majeſty's Dominions and Territories as are reſerved to them as their Hunting Grounds: AND WHEREAS upon the Requeſt of the Cherokees to me, that a Boundary Line between the Engliſh of this Province and them, might be run and plainly marked, to diſtinguiſh the Lands that according to the Treaty of Peace made with them in Charles-Town in the Year 1761, and afterwards explained in the Treaty at Auguſta in 1763, have been reſerved to them for their Hunting Grounds on the North-Weſt Parts of this Province; and in order to prevent as far as in me lies all Jealouſies of Encroachments and Diſputes between the ſaid Indians and the Engliſh Settlers in thoſe Parts, I have cauſed a Line to be run by EDWARD WILKINSON, Eſq; appointed by me Commiſſioner for that Purpoſe, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Indian Nation, in Preſence of ALEXANDER CAMERON, Eſq; Deputy to JOHN STUART, Eſq; his Majeſty's Superintendant for Indian Affairs in the Southern Diſtrict, and ſeveral of the Cherokee Chiefs, deputed from that Nation to attend thereat, beginning at a Place on the Road leading from Ninety-Six to Fort Prince-George, commonly called Dewis's Corner by the Engliſh, and Yellow Water by the Indians, running from thence a Courſe South-Weſt Fifty Degrees, till it interſects the Savannah River, and from the ſaid Road North-Eaſt Fifty Degrees, till it interſects the Reedy River; I DO THEREFORE, by and with the Advice of his Majeſty's Honourable Council, publiſh this my PROCLAMATION, notifying to all whom it may concern, that the ſaid Boundary Line is now eſtabliſhed, run, and marked. And I do hereby in his Majeſty's Name, ſtrictly enjoin and require all Perſons whatever, who have either willfully or inadvertently ſeated themſelves upon any Lands in this Province lying North-Weſtward of the Boundary Line above deſcribed, reſerved to the ſaid Indians, to remove themſelves from ſuch Settlements; and all Surveyors, Hunters, and others his Majeſty's Subjects, are hereby forbid to remain or paſs beyond the ſaid Boundary Line, except on their lawful Occaſions, as they ſhall anſwer the ſame at their Peril.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the Majeſty's ſaid Province, this Thirty-Firſt Day of May, Anno Dom. 1766, and in the Sixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

WILLIAM BULL.

By his Honour's Command,
THOMAS SKOTTOWE, Secry.

CHARLES-TOWN, JUNE 3.

THE ſmall Crop laſt Year of Indian Corn, hath raiſed the Price of that Commodity to ſuch an exceſſive Rate, that the poorer Sort of People are reduced to the greateſt Neceſſity; and it is with Reaſon feared, that ſuch Scarcity will enſue as has been ſeldom felt in this plentiful Country.

Part of a Letter from a Gentleman of Credit and Integrity in London, to his Friend in this Town, dated March 1766.

"I have the Satisfaction now to felicitate you on the Fall of the Stamp-Act, it is no more! This Day his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give his Royal Aſſent to the Bill for a Repeal of it; as alſo to the other Bill, for better ſecuring the Dependency of America, &c.----The Act of Repeal paſſed the Houſe of Lords Yeſterday without a Diviſion, a Proteſt is drawn up by the diſſenting Lords.

"The Commons Houſe are To-Morrow to reſolve itſelf into a Committee upon the Duty-Act of 1764. The North-American and Weſt-India Merchants have agreed upon certain Propoſitions, touching the Trade and Commerce by that Act almoſt reſtrained; I have given the Merchants ſome other Propoſitions, which they have this Day informed me have received their Approbation; but on this Subject I muſt Reſerve myſelf until another Opportunity."

Charleſtown, May 13, 1766.

ANDREW D'ELLIENT, teacher of the French language in this town, and ALEXANDER ALEXANDER, late from the college of Philadelphia; beg leave to inform the publick, that they intend to open ſchool at ſaid Mr. D'Ellient's houſe, above the State-Houſe, in Broad-ſtreet, oppoſite to Mrs. Hoyland's boarding-ſchool, on Monday the 26th of this inſtant May; where will be taught the Engliſh, French, Latin, and Greek languages grammatically; likewiſe writing, vulgar and decimal arithmetic, merchant's accounts, and geography: Any young gentlemen who intend to compleat their Studies in any of the neighbouring colleges, may be duly prepared by ſtudying the higher Latin and Greek claſſics, algebra, Euclid's elements and logic, in the ſame order and method as at college. Young ladies who are deprived of the valuable advantage of knowing the learned languages, may be ſo far inſtructed in Engliſh grammar as to be enabled to ſpeak or write their native tongue with as much Propriety as the beſt linguiſts. Boys who have a taſte and talents for oratory, may be taught rhetoric, and to pronounce orations with due action and diction. And as many may incline to improve themſelves in different branches of literature at the ſame time, they may here obviate the inconvenience of going to different places, and avoid the expence of employing different teachers. All who chooſe to favour them with ſcholars, may be aſſured, that they will unite their endeavours to give all poſſible ſatisfaction, and to diſcharge the truſt repoſed in them, with the ſtricteſt fidelity and diligence.

Lately imported, in the ſhip Brothers, from Glaſgow, and to be ſold at a ſtore on Meſſrs. Burn and Cunningham's new Wharf;

AN Aſſortment of check handkerchiefs, check, ſtriped and checked holland, brown ditto, fine white ditto, white linen, ſheetting ditto, damaſk and diaper table cloths, oznaburgs, bed ticks of different ſorts, plaited ſtocks, men and womens white thread and cotton hoſe, coloured and ſtiching thread.

Alſo a ſmall aſſortment of jewelery ware, conſiſting of pebble buttons ſet in ſilver, gold ear-rings, a few breaſt buckles, Clark's leather ſnuff boxes, mounted with pebble ſtones ſet in ſilver, horn ditto, mounted in the ſame manner, which, with ſundry other articles, will be ſold very cheap for caſh or ſhort credit, by WILLIAM SIMPSON.

N. B. Any ſtore-keeper may have a quantity of the above articles, at a few months credit.

Gooſe-Creek, May 19, 1766.

I am informed of a trotting roan gelding, near 14 hands high, lately trimmed with a bow mane; has black feet, and white ſpots on his ſides: Branded on the mounting ſhoulder thus S, and on the mounting buttock thus H. The owner may apply, and prove his property before
